Parties are agitating the notion of building a narrow gauge railfoad on the east side of theriver to Perrysburg. Maumee is already feeling the effect of her road.—Blade.

The Blade heads the above a "good Idea." So it is, but it is about eght or ten years ahead of time. With the accommodations furnished by the D. & M. Road, and the Corn Lock during the navigable season, we love every facility desirable for getting to Toledo. The time is not far distant, ho wever, when the river bank will be lined with residences from Toledo to Perrysburg, when such an enterprise will not only pay from the start, but will be an actual necessity.

We see it state! that a case under the McConnelsville ordinance has been tested in Van Wert, and that Judge Phenes decided the ordinance to be illegal. We know not what changes have been made by the Van Wert C uncil in the passage of this ordinance, but we do know that the McConnelsville ordinance has generally been conceded to be impregnable to all the judicial batteries that have been Brought to bear against it, which are many. The quiblings, dodgings and rulings, all in favor of the liquor interest, are one hundred, sixteen have pronounced appropriate subjects for rigid invertiga for, and thirty-four against, license, tion by the people. It is about time to ascertain if any law upon the subject can be so framed as to stand the pressure.

Removed to Fostoria, In the same County, and will commence its Fifth Year on Tuesday, September 8th, 1874.

Reasons for Removal: 1. Fostoria is a healthful enterprising town of 3,000 inhabitants, at the intersection of the Lake Eric & Louisville, and the Baitimore. Pittsburgh & Chicago Railmada, and is easily reached from all parts of the State. It will shortly have three more roads, making a great inland center of wealth and influence.

2. The town provides, in good style and thoroughly furnished, school rooms sufficient to accommodate at least 500 students and promises to give the moral and pecuniary support necessary to make the school equal to any in the whole country.

3. In short, the ease of access, the enterprise of the people, the cheapness of fiving, the general refinement and social standing of the inhabitants, together with the favorable geographical location of the place, make Fostoris the most desirable point in Northern et Northwestern Ohiu for the location of an educational institution.

Who should Attend? 1. Every teacher in the common schools, and every young lady or gentleman desiring to become such.

2. Every young person, lady or gentleman, who desires to take a commercial course.

3. Every young lady or gentlemen who desire to complete a regular course of study in the higher branches, with the view of being qualified for any of the professions.

4. In abort every person who wishes to obtain a rich equivalent for his outlay of time and EXPENSES. TUITION: 75 cents a week. BOARD: PRIVATE, 83 to $3 50; CLUB, $2 to $2 25; SELF-

REMARKS. No Pains will be spared to make the school pleasant and profitable for all. Experienced teachers, interested citizens, energy, and the experience of the past will all be brought to bear to the work.
